

I believe there is too much violence on television. Many children do not know how to separate fact from fantasy. Therefore, what they watch on TV is perceived as real life. For this reason, aggression in children is on the rise. Let's stop the violence and cursing on television now! Thank you.